Obituary of Thomas Barr.

Thomas H. Barr was born in Zanesville, Ohio, September 1st, 1831, and died in Brazil, Indiana, January 7th, 1878. He removed with his parents to Terre Haute, Indiana, when in his seventeenth year, and remained a citizen of this city until about seven years since, when failing health and reverses in business decided him to seek a home elsewhere. He spent some time in travel, in the vain hope that he might regain his health. His indomitable energy would not suffer him to be idle, and after a few months spent in visiting different parts of the country, he again established himself in business, in Brazil. He was possessed of a confiding disposition, and of a very liberal spirit. Most of his reverses in business were the result of this too confiding and generous disposition. His confidence was easily won, and he did not know how to refuse a friend. He united with the Methodist Episcopal church when a child, in his ninth year, and at that early age made a profession of religion. Through all his life he bore a consistent Christian character. Until disabled by affliction he was a very active and useful official member of the church. He was always ready to lead, with his counsel and his means in every important and benevolent enterprise of the church and community. During the last seven years of his life, that he and his wife, to whom he was very much devoted, might not be separated in church fellowship, he has been a member of the Presbyterian church. Thomas Barr could not be sectarian; he was of too generous and liberal a nature for that. And though he died out of the communion of the church of his early choice, it was not that he had aught against her. And we who remain, whether of this or that communion, are content since he lived and died in the fellowship of the saints, and his blood redeemed and blood-washed spirit has doubtless entered into the one communion above.

Good Man — C. A. Brooke.

Mr. William M. Barr, a prominent citizen of this place, died at his residence on south Fourth street, about six o'clock Thursday evening, of pneumonia. Mr. Barr was born in Loudon county, Virginia, on the 17th day of August, 1829. When he was six months old his parents removed to Zanzesville, Ohio. In 1850 he came to this city, and has resided here ever since, carrying on the business of house and sign painting. During the war, he served three years in the 16th Indiana regiment and was distinguished for his bravery, cheerfulness, and uniform good conduct. He was possessed of a most genial disposition and no citizen had more devoted friends or more of them. He will be sadly missed. The funeral will take place tomorrow morning. May 11. 76

Andrew Barr Sr. was a native of Derry county, Ireland, and there married Jane McKee about 1791. In 1813, accompanied by his wife and three children, John, James and Jane, he immigrated to the United States, and purchased a tract of land called "Camperdown" from William Roseboro, located in what is now Adams township, Butler county, Pa. Here Andrew and wife spent the remainder of their lives, and did their full share towards the improvement of the township. John married Jane Dickey; James married Jane Spear, and was killed while assisting in the erection of a barn on the Ross farm while Jane remained unmarried, and died in 1878, aged seventy-eight years. The parents were members of the Covenanter church.

John Barr was born in Ireland in 1795 and was the eldest child of Andrew and Jane Barr. He came to Butler county with his parents where he grew to manhood. In 1821 he was married to Jane Dickey, daughter of David Dickey of Deer Creek township, Allegheny county, to which union were born seven children: Mary J., deceased wife of Jacob Stoup; Andrew and David both deceased; James; Margaret E., deceased; Margaret E. named for her deceased sister, and John. The parents were members of the Covenanter church, and died upon their farm in Adams township, which is now the property of their son James. They were worthy people, and won the respect and confidence of the community in which they resided.

James Barr was born April 5, 1828 upon the homestead in Adams township, Butler county, and is the oldest living son of John and Jane Barr. He received a good common school education and has been a farmer all his life. Mr. Barr has been twice married, his first wife being Mary Ann, daughter of Isaac Sterrett, of Lawrence county, who became the mother of one son, John C. born Jan 26, 1854. His second wife was Matilda, daughter of Archibald S. McCord of Allegheny county. Both he and wife are members of the United Presbyterian church, in which denomination he has been trustee for a number of years, and is now filling the office of deacon. In politics, he is a stanch Republican, has filled the office of justice of the peace for ten years, and has been a school director for the same length of time. He is one of the leading farmers of his township, and takes an active part in the public affairs of the county.

Andrew Barr was born about 1825, upon the old Barr homestead, in Adams township, Butler county, son of John and Jane (Dickey) Barr. He was reared upon his father's farm, and was educated in a subscription school of his neighborhood. He married Nancy G., daughter of Judge Samuel Marshall of Butler county, to which union nine children were born as follows: Samuel J.; Esther B.; Mary, and Nancy O., all of whom are dead; two who died in infancy; Emma J; John C., and Andrew M. The parents were members of the United Presbyterian church in which Mr. Barr was an elder for thirty years. He was a Republican, in politics, and filled several of the township offices at different periods. Mrs. Barr died July 20, 1880 and her husband July 5, 1892.

John C. Barr, physician and surgeon, was born April 28, 1859, upon the homestead farm in Cranberry township, son of Andrew and Nancy G. Barr. After receiving a common school education, he spent three years at Sharpsburg Academy, preparing for a college course, taught school for two years, and then entered Jefferson Medical College, at Philadelphia in 1883 where he was graduated April 2, 1885. He was resident physician at the Women's Hospital, West Philadelphia for six months and then located at Mars, Butler county where he has since been engaged in the practice of his profession. He is surgeon for the Pittsburg and Western Railway Company. Dr. Barr was married September 26, 1888 to Lulu C., a daughter of Abraham Campbell, of Pittsburg and has one daughter, Helen C. He is a trustee in Mars United Presbyterian church, and in politics, he is a Republican. He was elected a delegate to the Republican State Convention of 1894, having the largest vote in the county. Dr. Barr is an ex-president of the Butler County Medical Society, and is one of its active and most useful members. He is a member of the State Medical Society, also of the National Association of Railway Surgeions, and since locating at Mars he has built up a gratifying practice.
